Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

3rd June 1867.

No. 7. Read the following letter from the Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 22nd May 1867, No. 29.

In reply to your letter, dated the 1st instant, No. 702, I am directed by the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court to state that they see no reason for recommending the appointment of an additional Translator for the Salem Civil and Session Court, as the work in that Court is a mere trifle to that of several other Courts, and it is not intended that a Judge should relieve himself from hearing appeal petitions in the vernacular.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 3rd June 1867, No 896.

Resolved that a copy of the foregoing letter be furnished to the Civil Judge of Salem, with reference to his letters, dated the 9th and 16th January last, Nos. 1 and 2, and that he be informed that the Governor in Council concurs in the opinion expressed by the Honorable the Judges of the High Court.

(True Extract).
