*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
13th June 1867.*

No. 104. Read the following letter from Mr. J. MASKELL, Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 5th June 1867, No. 30.

I have the honor to request you will bring to the notice of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, that the state of my health renders it necessary I should proceed to England on Medical Certificate, on being relieved by Mr. Cower.

2. It would be to my present advantage to take leave under the new rules, as I am now eligible under them to fifteen months' leave on half my permanent salary, or 400 Rupees per mensem; whereas under the old rules, I can only obtain sick leave on one-third of my salary, or Rupees 266-10-8 per mensem, having already, at the beginning of 1862, taken fifteen months' leave, viz., twelve months on one-half and three months on one-third of my pay.

3. But the Home Government have ruled that the claims of an Uncovenanted Officer to pension under the old rules shall be vitiated should he have "at any time availed himself of the benefits conferred by the new leave Regulations"—(Vide Memorandum of Examiner of Claims printed with Proceedings of Government of 4th July 1866, No. 1045).

4. Having completed thirty years' service, I am now entitled to a pension, under the old rules, of one-half my average salary for the past five years, or 410 Rupees per mensem. If brought under the new rules, however, I shall forfeit all service under twenty-two years of age, and the period passed on sick leave in 1862-63, and come moreover under a reduced scale of pension, so that I shall only be entitled to a pension of 250 Rupees a month if I retire within the next two years, and never to a higher rate of pension than £400 per annum, or Rupees 333-5-4 per mensem.

5. Under these circumstances, I am precluded from soliciting leave under the new rules, but I trust the Government will consider that my case comes within the scope of the Despatch of the Secretary of State, dated 18th January 1865, No. 1, referred to in paragraphs 5 and 8 of the Proceedings of Government above quoted, and grant me an indulgence similar to that extended to Mr. Cower, for whom I am acting, by allowing me further sick leave under the old rules for a period of nine months on one-third of my permanent salary, or Rupees 266-10-8 per mensem.

6. Should the Government grant me the indulgence I solicit, I shall be prepared to submit the prescribed Medical Certificate.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, (Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
5th June 1867. Chief Secretary.

No. 61.

MEMORANDUM.

The undersigned has the honor to report, that Mr. Maskell is eligible to nine months' sick leave upon production of a Medical Certificate in the prescribed form; but if Government are pleased to grant this to him under the old rules it will require to be confirmed by the Secretary of State in Council.

7th June 1867.
To the Chief Secretary to Government.
