Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 14th June 1867.

Read the following :—

No. 130. Letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay; dated Simla, 27th May 1867, No. 506.

Foreign Department,
Political.

I have laid before the Governor General in Council your letter, No. 103, dated 24th ultimo, forwarding, for the decision of the Government of India, a reference from the Commissioner of Police at Bombay on the question whether any check should be placed on the importation of fire-arms other than rifles.

2. In reply, I am directed by His Excellency in Council to state that the Order of the Government of India, dated 10th May 1866, by which the importation of rifles was absolutely prohibited, applies only to that description of weapon, and has not superseded the previous Order, dated 23rd February, so far as other fire arms are concerned. Consequently, under the provisions of the latter Order, the question whether, in any particular case, non-rifled pieces may, or may not, be imported will depend for its decision upon the circumstance whether or not they may be intended for sale by public auction, or by private sale to respectable parties.
