Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

15th June 1867.

No. 141. Read the following letter from the Registrar General of Assurances, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras 11th February 1867, No. 33.

In my letters, No. 219, of the 24th July, and No. 314, of the 13th December, 1865, I brought to the notice of Government the great and increasing arrears in my office, and I showed, in paragraphs 6 and 7 of the latter letter, that, instead of 9 men, 23 were required to get through the current work alone.

2. A temporary establishment of six clerks, at a monthly cost of Rupees 130, was sanctioned in the Government Order, No. 364, of the 10th March 1866, to clear off the arrears; and the whole of the arrears under Act XVI of 1864 has now devolved on this establishment, the clerks of the permanent establishment being employed on the current duties.

3. Calculating that a single clerk can examine, copy, and index 20 abstracts a day, or 500 abstracts per mensem, this establishment may be expected to get through 3000 abstracts per mensem.

4. All the abstracts have not yet come in, but the returns show that 128,497 instruments and memoranda of decrees of Courts were registered in Books Nos. 1, 2, and 3, under Act XVI of 1864. Of these, 55,151 have been entered, leaving 73,346 still to be disposed of, without reckoning a few registrations which will have to be entered in Book 4, on the ground that they relate to moveable as well as immoveable property.

5. It is obvious that, at the above rate, it will take more than two years to bring up these arrears, and as, in the long run, it will make no difference in the cost whether twelve clerks are employed for one year, or six clerks for two years, I beg to solicit the sanction of Government for doubling the present temporary establishment, with a view to these arrears being cleared off at a more rapid rate than is at present possible.

No. 142. ORDER THEREON, 15th June 1867, No. 974.

The Governor in Council sanctions the arrangement suggested in paragraph 5 of the foregoing letter, for increasing the temporary establishment from 6 to 12 clerks, at a cost of Rupees (260) two hundred and sixty per mensem.

2. The charge will be entered in the monthly statement forwarded to the Government of India, and will be passed by the Audit Department from the date on which the additional clerks were entertained.
