Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 5th June 1867.

No. 71. Read the following letter from the Officiating Government Pleader, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 29th May 1867, No. 95 :—

1. With reference to the Order of Government noted in the margin, I have the honour to inform you that the question as to the necessity for stamping Appeals to the High Court from Decrees and Orders of the Mofussil Courts, came on for argument this day before the Chief Justice and Justices Holloway and Collett.

Dated 28th May 1867, No. 1,206, Revenue Department.

2. Mr. Miller appeared for an appellant, and argued that such Petitions of Appeal did not require any stamp. Mr. Mayne, as Acting Advocate General, and I, appeared to support the interests of the Government.

3. After a lengthy argument, and, in consequence of a difference of opinion among the Judges, the Court has taken time to consider its decision. It will probably deliver Judgment on Friday next, the 31st instant. As soon as Judgment has been delivered, I will communicate the purport and effect of it to you. As far as could be gathered from the expressions which fell from the Judges, the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Collett were inclined to hold that the Appeals in question should be stamped under Act XXVI of 1867, while Mr. Justice Holloway seemed to throw out that they need not be stamped at all.

No. 72. ORDER THEREON, 5th June 1867, No. 1,271.

Separate Revenue, No. 8.
Stamps.

Ordered to be recorded.
