Proceedings of the Madras Government Judicial Department, 22nd January 1868.

No. 170. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 18th January 1868, No. 23.

With reference to General Order, 14th January 1868, No. 50, I am directed to state that it is simply impossible for the Members of the Judicial Sub-Committee, consistently with the due performance of the other duties required of them as Members of the Public Service, to hold examinations for the Cantonment Joint Magistrate's test whenever any Officer chooses to apply for such an examination. No less than three such applications have been received at intervals since the last examination which was held in December.

2. The labor of getting papers calculated to test the knowledge of examinees who are allowed to refer to their books during the examination is not trifling, and is, of course, the same whether there be one candidate or twenty.

3. The next regular Cantonment Joint Magistrate's Examination will be held in June. If the Government desire an extraordinary examination to be held before that time, I am to request that they will advise the Committee of the date at which they wish it to take place, and issue a Notification informing all gentlemen now desirous of passing the examination that they must address the Committee before that time, and that no other opportunity of appearing will occur, except at the half-yearly examinations held by the Committee for the examination of Assistants.

No. 171. ORDER THEREON, 22nd January 1868, No. 106.

The Government desire that the examinations for the Cantonment Magistrates be held during this year quarterly; the first examination to take place in the 1st week in March next.

(True Extract).

Sir,

With reference to General Order 11th January 1868. I am directed to state that it is simply impossible for the members of the Judicial Sub Committee, consistently with the due performance of the other duties required of them as members of the Public Service, to hold Examinations for the Cantonment Joint Magistrate's test whenever any Officer chooses to apply for such an Examination. It is to be noted that such Applications have been received at intervals since the last Examination which was held in December.

2. The labour of getting papers calculated to test the knowledge of Examinees who are allowed to refer to their books during the Examination is not trifling and is of course the same whether there be one Candidate or twenty.

3. The next regular Cantonment Magistrate's Examination will be held in June. If the Government division an extraordinary Examination to be held before that time, I am to request that they will advise the Committee of the date at which they wish it to take place and if possible a Notification informing all Gentlemen
