Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th January 1868.

No. 38. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of North Arcot, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Iral, 10th December 1867, No. 83.

Adverting to paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of Government, Judicial Department, dated the 4th instant, No. 1980, I have the honor to state that the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury in this District has tried about eighteen Magisterial cases up to date. He exercises the powers of a Subordinate Magistrate of the 1st Class. Until a few weeks ago, there was no Officer on the Head Quarters' Staff exercising 1st Class Magisterial powers, as the Head Assistant in this District has a distant and independent charge of his own. As far as possible, I act up to the spirit of the instructions cited in the margin, and avoid throwing any Magisterial work on my Treasury Deputy, but as the Jum-mahbundy, which will this year be peculiarly arduous, is at hand, and will necessitate the almost continuous absence of myself and Covenanted Staff from Head Quarters, I hope Government will be pleased to permit my Treasury Deputy to exercise from time to time, as the occasion requires, the Magisterial powers he already possesses.

Proceedings of Government, dated 17th January 1868, No. 77, Judicial Department.

No. 39. [ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1868, No. 21.]

As, under the recent orders of the Government, two Assistants have been specially appointed to the North Arcot District, the Governor in Council trusts that the Magistrate of the District will be able to make such arrangements, during his absence on circuit, as will allow of a Covenanted Officer remaining at Chittoor, as required by the Order of Government dated 29th November 1865, No. 1699, and that it will not be necessary that the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury should exercise Magisterial powers.

Under the circumstances as stated respects that his Deputy collector may be permitted to open since from time to time the powers of the already proposed.

With an order.

Before complying with Mr. L. D. Polson's request, we should learn from him the name of the officer in whose favor he submits this important request.

But apart from that objection, I am disposed, as at present info^d, to refuse to grant full magistrat powers to the Deputy Comm. in question. According to Mr. A. Scagg has full powers & is there now at Chittor. Another Asst Mr. E. Johnson has the same powers. If both these gentlemen be employed as they ought to be, I much doubt the wisdom of working the Deputy Comm. cases of the Treasury, magisterial.
Further after the Rubygem scandal has been fully developed at Cuddapa it seems more than ever necessary to keep Deputy Comm. apart from the Treasury, at Treasury business rather than prevent them from creating a more agreeable excitement of magisterial cases.

W.D.

In the present circumstances of the District of North Arcot the Governor in Council authorizes the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury
 (the District of North Arcot) to exercise the Magisterial powers with which he is invested during Mr. Ashwin Sain's absence on circuit.
 I would allow present circumstances to underpin him -

I would give the time as on mentioned measure
