21. January 1868. W. H. D.

Sir,

I regret to have to report that a European Child named Kate Hayward, daughter of a Private of the Regiment whose mother arrived at this Station from Hongkong on the 19. inst. without his children, has been missing from the family quarters of the Rangoon since 12 o'clock noon on the 20. inst.

Means caused every enquiry to be made, have sent out fatigue parties on the evening of the 20th, to search the whole of this Station, to report the circumstances to the local Police Authorities, but without effect.

This morning I again assembled the whole of the Depot under my Command, and sent the man in command of order to search the Mills, Villages, and up to this date no trace of the missing child can be found.

I give a description of the child in the margin, and beg to request you will be good enough to give orders to the Native Police to search the District with the view to recovering the child or of obtaining a clue to lead to his discovery.

Yours truly
