Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd February 1868.

No. 271. Read the following letter from Major C. S. HEARN, Acting Inspector General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 17th February 1868, No. 71-218.

General Department.

With reference to G. O., No. 1370, of 22nd August 1867, I have the honor to forward an approximate estimate of the probable future requirements for hutting the Police throughout the Presidency.

2. The preparation of this estimate has been delayed by the difficulty experienced in ascertaining the actual requirements over a vast area of country. Officers who are new to their districts are unable to make exact calculations without relying too much on the reports of their subordinates; but the actual construction of buildings is never recommended for sanction until the necessity has been fully established by the personal inspection of the District Officers. Local prices too may be found to vary. A fair general average at existing rates can alone be attempted at present. The highest rates given are for buildings in the difficult country of Wynnad; and in one or two other districts exceptionally high prices prevail.

3. I can add nothing to the arguments of Mr. Robinson in his letter, No. 1422, of the 14th August 1867, regarding the absolute necessity of providing adequate shelter for the Police Force throughout the country, and I can only repeat his assurance to the Government that the expenditure will be strictly checked and carried out with all possible regard to economy.

4. With respect to the time required for completing the hutting, I would beg to refer to paragraph 4 of Mr. Robinson's letter before quoted. The sum hitherto expended annually has averaged about Rupees 50,000. A sum ranging from this to Rupees 75,000 might doubtless be efficiently expended in any one year. The time required for completion must depend on the amount of annual grant, but in any case it must extend over several years.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd February 1868.

No. 272. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, dated Fort Saint George, 22nd February 1868, No. 303.
In reply to your letter, dated 10th July 1867, No. 2123, on the subject of hutting the Madras Police, I am directed to submit the accompanying correspondence from Mr. Robinson, the Inspector General of Police, and from the present Acting Inspector General of Police.

2. From this it will be perceived that the grant of Rupees 51,500 entered in this year's Budget will not, as supposed by the Government of India, suffice for hutting the Police throughout the Madras Presidency, but that an annual grant for this purpose must be continued for some years.

3. From the statement prepared by the Acting Inspector General, it appears that, before the entire Police Force is hutted throughout the Presidency, 7493 huts must be built, at an estimated cost of Rupees 6,30,897.

4. In paragraphs 6 and 7 of Mr. Robinson's letter dated 14th August last, he explains why he has considered it better to continue the system of applying for a moderate annual grant rather than for the actual total amount required for the complete hutting accommodation of the Police Force, and points out that there must always be some difficulty in expending through the Police Department any large sums of money in remote places, and that it would be difficult for Police Officers to supervise efficiently a number of small works going on at the same time at many different stations of their districts.

5. I am directed to observe that this Government has never entertained any doubt as to the great importance of hutting the Police Force at their stations, and that they consider the provision in this Presidency of suitable shelter for the Police and their families essential to the maintenance of their health, respectability, and efficiency.

6. The Government are convinced that the most careful supervision is exercised by the Inspector General of Police over this expenditure, and they trust that the explanation offered by Mr. Robinson, which has the full support of this Government, will satisfy the Government of India of the necessity of the continuance of the annual grant for the hutting of the Police.

7. I am, in conclusion, to express regret at the delay which has occurred in replying to the letter of the Government of India on this subject; but, in order to secure with accuracy the information contained in the Memorandum attached to the letter of the Acting Inspector General of Police, it has been necessary to make frequent references to all the Districts of the Presidency.

Sir

With reference to G.O. N^o 1370 of 22nd August 1867 I have the honor to inform you an approximate estimate of the probable future requirements for staffing the Police throughout the Presidency.

2. The preparation of this estimate has been delayed by the difficulty experienced in ascertaining the actual requirements over a vast area of Country. Officers who are new to their but the actual construction of buildings is never recommended for sanction until the necessity has been fully established by the personal inspection of the District Officers. Local prices too may be found to vary. A fair general average at existing rates can alone be attempted at present. The highest rates given are for buildings in the difficult Country of Wynad and in one or two other Districts exceptionally high prices prevail.

3 I can add nothing to the arguments of Mr. Robinson in his letter No. 1422 of the 14th August 1867 regarding the absolute necessity of providing adequate shelter for the Police Force throughout the Country and I can only repeat his assurance to the Government that the expenditure will be strictly checked and carried out with all possible regard to economy.

4 With respect to the time required for completing the building I would be glad to refer to para 4 of Mr. Robinson's letter before quoted. The sum hitherto expended annually has averaged about Rs 50,000. A sum ranging from this to Rs 75,000 might doubtless be efficiently expended in any one year. The time
