Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 24th February 1868.

No. 238. Read the following letter from the Acting Agent to the Governor of Fort Saint George in Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Camp Royaguddah, 1st February 1868, No. 45.

A woman, named Mantana Sitamma, has just been acquitted, under Section 393 of the Criminal Procedure Code, in a trial before my Court of Sessions, on a charge "of committing mischief by fire, with intent to destroy a house", under Section 436 of the Indian Penal Code.

2. In the finding it is stated that she did commit the act charged, but that, at the time at which she is charged to have committed the offence, she was, by reason of unsoundness of mind, incapable of knowing the nature of the act charged, or that she was doing what was wrong or contrary to law.

3. The woman has been kept in custody, under Section 394, Criminal Procedure Code. She does not appear to be a person who might be dangerous hereafter, and her husband is anxious to take charge of her, and to be answerable for her conduct. I have the honor, therefore, to request that the Government will see fit to issue orders, under Section 397, Criminal Procedure Code, for the delivery of the woman Sitamma to her husband Musalaya.

No. 239. ORDER THEREON, 24th February 1868, No. 314.

Under the provisions of Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Governor in Council directs that Mantana Sitamma be delivered over to the custody of her husband Musalaya, on his furnishing the prescribed security.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.

To the Agent to the Governor of Fort Saint George in Vizagapatam.
