Memo for orders

Mr. Wilson makes out no case for himself, but shows that his officers & clerks are permitted to interfere in matters which they should not touch.

Learned intimate that traders turned we went in the general market, with it. Poor people should have an opinion that of the latter was kept to their legitimate duties it is probable they may be able to look after the management of the Subject.

W.D.N.

Do not think Mr. Wilson makes out a special case for giving an allowance on 10 PP. a month for the funter's fund. It is a novelty that Daffodil & pens should be so fully occupied in supplying bandie. beavers &c. It is not stated for whom, but it would seem for Merchants.

No 418

Kistna District
Magistrates Circuit Court
Gudirada in Gudirada Taluk 28 January 1868

From,

William Wilson Esquire, Acting Magistrate of Kistna District

To

The Honorable R. J. Ellis C.B.
Chief Secretary to Government.
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

* Dated 20th
February 1867
No 260.

Under the order of Government quoted in the margin the charge of subsidiary jails was made over to the subordinate Magistracy whose Puffadars not the Police according to the practice theretofore existing hold the keys and cater for the prisoners confined. There is in general no inconvenience felt from this arrangement. At Guntur however on the high road from Madras to Calcutta and a place of considerable resort by merchants and traders, the Taluk Puffadar and peons are very much occupied in the business of a light ferry carrying them across the river and the additional duty of having to attend to the wants of the prisoners confined in the subsidiary jail is found to press rather heavily upon them. The number of peons in this Taluk is the same as in all others, and the greater part are necessarily employed in their more proper revenue duties. For the wants of travellers however some must be kept about Head Quarters. The Tahsildar suggests that an attendant on 10 Rs a month be appointed for the subsidiary jail, which is distant from the Cutcherry about half a mile, and I have the honor to request that Government will under the special circumstances of the place be pleased to sanction the appointment.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.
