Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th March 1868.

No. 25. Read the following letter from the Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 27th February 1868, No. 350.

I have the honor to inform you that P. Ramanjooloo Naidoo, Head Translator of this Court, on the Appellate Side, applied for the benefit of the Insolvent Act on the 23rd January 1868. He was thereupon suspended by order of the Chief Justice.

2. His case came on for hearing before the Chief Justice on the 21st February 1868, and he received his discharge. The Chief Justice on the same day intimated to me that he might resume charge of his office, and that he was clearly entitled to his full pay during the period of his suspension, his insolvency having been caused by circumstances which did not in any way reflect on his character or conduct.

3. Thereupon, I informed the Examiner of Claims that P. Ramanjooloo Naidoo had resumed charge of his office by order of the Chief Justice, and would draw full pay during the period of his suspension.

The Examiner of Claims has now addressed to me the enclosed Memorandum. I have therefore the honor to request you will inform me whether any, and if so, what further action on my part is necessary.

No. 178.

Side, will be good enough to state the date and number of the proceedings on appeal, allowing P. Ramanjooloo Naidoo to resume his duties, and to draw full salary for the period of his suspension.

Fort Saint George,
24th February 1868.
