CAP. CXLI.

An Act to amend the Statute Law as between Master and Servant.

[20th August 1867.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter in some respects the existing Enactments relative to the Determination of Questions arising between Employers and employed under Contracts of Service:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Statute Law as between Master and Servant Act, 1867.

2. In this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have Definition of the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be any Term or thing in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction:

The Word "Employer" shall include any Person, Firm, Corporation, or Company who has entered into a Contract of Service with any Servant, Workman, Artificer, Labourer, Apprentice, or other Person, and the Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman, Manager, or Factor of such Person, Firm, Corporation, or Company:

The Word "Employed" shall include any Servant, Workman, Artificer, Labourer, Apprentice, or other Person, whether under the age of twenty-one years or above that age, who has entered into a Contract of Service with any Employer:

The Words "Contract of Service" shall include any Contract, whether in Writing or by Parol, to serve for any Period of Time, or to execute any Work, and any Indenture or Contract of Apprenticeship, whether such Contract or Indenture has been or is made or executed before or after the passing of this Act:

The Word "Parties" shall include the Employer and Employed under any Contract of Service:

The Word "Writing" shall include "Printing":

The Word "Property" shall include all Real and Personal Estate and Effects used and employed under or affected by any Contract of Service or Operations under the same:

The Word "Sheriff" applies to Scotland only, and shall include Sheriff Substitute:

The Words "County or Place" shall include County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place:

The Word "Magistrate" does not apply to Scotland, and means in England, except in the City of London, a Stipendiary Magistrate, and in the City of London means the Lord Mayor or

or an Alderman sitting at the Mansion House or at the Guild-hall, and in Ireland shall apply only to the Metropolitan Police District of Dublin, and there shall mean One of the Divisional Magistrates for such District:

The Word "Justice" means Justice of the Peace:

The Words "Two Justices" mean two or more Justices assembled and acting together:

The Words "Justice," "Two Justices," "Magistrate," and "Sheriff" respectively mean a Justice, Two Justices, a Magistrate, or a Sheriff having Jurisdiction in the County or Place where any Contract of Service is according to the Terms thereof to be executed, or where the Party against whom any Information, Complaint, or Proceeding is to be laid or taken under this Act happens to be.

Limitation of Scope of this Act, and substitution thereof for existing Enactments.

3. Nothing in this Act shall apply to any Contract of Service other than a Contract within the Meaning of the Enactments described in the First Schedule to this Act, or some or One of them, or to any Employer or Employed other than the Parties to a Contract of Service to which this Act applies as aforesaid, or to any Case, Matter, or Thing arising under or relating to any Contract of Service, or arising between Employer and Employed, other than Cases, Matters, and Things to which the said Enactments respectively apply; and in respect of all Contracts of Service, Employers, Employed, Cases, Matters and Things to which this Act applies, the respective Provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be and are hereby substituted for such of the said Enactments, or so much or such Parts of the same, as would have applied thereto if this Act had not been passed; but any Proceedings at the passing of this Act pending under the said Enactments, or any of them, may be continued and prosecuted as if this Act had not been passed.

Complaint to be made to a Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate, or Sheriff in England, Wales, and Ireland, and of the Parties, or touching any Misuse, Misconduct, Ill-treatment, or Injury to the Person or Property of either of the Parties under any Contract of Service, the Party feeling aggrieved may lay an Information or Complaint in Writing before a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff, setting forth the Grounds of Complaint, and the Amount of Compensation, Damage, or other Remedy claimed for the Breach or Non-performance of such Contract, or for any such Misuse, Misconduct, Ill-treatment, or Injury to the Person or Property of the Party so complaining; and upon such Information or Complaint being laid, the Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff shall issue or cause to be issued a Summons or Citation to the Party so complained against, setting out the Grounds of Complaint, and the Amount claimed for Compensation, Damage, or other Remedy, as set forth in the said Information or Complaint, and requiring such Party to appear, at the Time and Place therein appointed, before Two Justices or before a Magistrate, or before the Sheriff, to answer the Matter of the Information or Complaint, so that the same may be then and there heard and determined.

Upon Complaint made, Summons or Citation to be issued.

Time for appearance.

5. The Time to be appointed in the Summons or Citation for the Appearance of the Party complained against shall not be less than Two or more than Eight Days from the Date of the Summons or Citation, save that where the Appearance is to be before Justices in Petty Sessions, or before a Magistrate at a Police Court, the Time to be appointed shall be that of the Sitting of the Court of Petty Sessions or Police Court at or for the Place where the Summons or Citation is returnable, to be held next after such Two Days (whether within such Eight Days or not).

Mode and time of Service.

6. Every such Summons or Citation shall be served on the Party complained against by being delivered to him or left at his usual Place of Abode or Business not less than Two Days before the time appointed for his Appearance.

Master and Servant.

7. Wherever the Party complained against shall neglect or refuse to appear to any Summons or Citation as aforesaid according to the Provisions of this Act, a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may, after due Proof on Oath of the Service of such Summons or Citation, issue a Warrant for the Apprehension of such Party in order to the hearing and determining of the Matter of the Information or Complaint.

8. If at any Time after the laying of the Information or Complaint, the Party complained against is about to absent himself, the Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may issue a Summons or Citation requiring the Party complained against to appear before a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff at a Time and Place therein appointed (such Time being not later than Twenty-four Hours, exclusive of Sunday, from the Date of the last-mentioned Summons or Citation), and to find good and sufficient Security by Recognizance or Bond, with or without Sureties, to the Satisfaction of a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff, for his Appearance to answer the Information or Complaint; and if the Party complained against fails to appear at the Time and Place so appointed, a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may issue a Warrant for his Apprehension; and if such Party on appearing to the last-mentioned Summons or Citation, or on being so apprehended, fails to find Security, a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may order him to be detained in safe Custody until the hearing of the Information or Complaint; but on his so finding Security he shall be set at liberty.

9. Upon the Hearing of any Information or Complaint under the Provisions of this Act Two Justices, or the Magistrate or Sheriff, after due Examination, and upon the Proof and Establishment of the Matter of such Information or Complaint, by an Order in Writing under their respective Hands, in their or his Discretion, as the Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may think fit, shall make an Abatement of the whole or Part of the Contract of Service, with a direction to the Party complained against to find forthwith good and sufficient Security, by recognizance or Bond, with or without Sureties, to the Satisfaction of a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff, for the Fulfilment of such Contract, or else shall annul the Contract, discharging the Parties from the same, and apportioning the Amount of Wages due up to the completed Period of such Contract, or else where no Amount of Compensation or Damage can be assessed, or where pecuniary Compensation will not in the Opinion of the Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff meet the Circumstances of the Case, shall impose a Fine upon the Party complained against, not exceeding in Amount the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or else shall assess and determine the Amount of Compensation or Damage, together with the Costs, to be made to the Party complaining, inclusive of the Amount of any Wages stated, and direct the same to be paid accordingly; and if the Order shall direct the Fulfilment of the Contract, and direct the Party complained against to find good and sufficient Security as aforesaid, and the Party complained against neglect or refuse to comply with such Order, a Justice, Magistrate, or Sheriff may, if he shall think fit, by Warrant under his Hand, commit such Party to the Common Gaol or House of Correction within his Jurisdiction, there to be confined and kept until he shall so find Security, but nevertheless so that the Term of Imprisonment, whether under One or several successive Commitments, shall not exceed in the whole the Period of Three Months: Provided always, that the Two Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff may, if they or he think fit, assess and determine the Amount of Compensation or Damage to be paid to the Party complaining, and direct the same to be paid, whether the Contract is ordered by them to be annulled or not, or, in addition to the annulling of the Contract of Service and Discharge of the Parties from the same, may, if they or he think fit, impose the Fine as herein-before authorized, but they or he shall not under the Powers of this Act be authorized to annul, nor shall any Provisions of this Act have the Effect of annulling, any Indenture or Contract of Apprenticeship that they or he might not have annulled or that would not have been annulled if this Act had not been passed.

Master and Servant.

Enforcement of Recognizance or Bond for Fulfillment of Contract. 10. Where it is alleged by any Party to a Contract of Service that the Condition of a Recognizance or Bond entered into or given for the Fulfillment of the Contract under the Provisions of this Act has not been performed, Two Justices, or a Magistrate or Sheriff, being satisfied thereof, after hearing the Parties and the Sureties (if any), or in the Absence of any Party or Surety not appearing after Summons or Citation in that Behalf, may order that the Recognizance or Bond be enforced for the whole or Part of the Sum thereby secured, as to the Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff seems fit; and the Sum for which the same is so ordered to be enforced shall be recovered accordingly in a summary Manner under the Acts described in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Recovery of Money by Distress or Pounding, and Imprisonment in default. 11. Where on the Hearing of an Information or Complaint under this Act an Order is made for the Payment of Money, and the same is not paid as directed, the same shall be recovered by Distress or Pounding of the Goods and Chattels of the Party failing to pay, and in default thereof by Imprisonment of such Party, according and subject to the Acts described in the Second Schedule to this Act; but no such Imprisonment shall be for more than Three Months, or be with Hard Labour.

Imprisonment to be in discharge of Compensation. 12. From and after the Expiration of the Term of any such Imprisonment as aforesaid, the Amount of Fine, Compensation, or Damages, together with the Costs, so assessed and directed to be paid by any such Order as aforesaid, shall be deemed and considered as liquidated and discharged, and such Order shall be annulled accordingly, and the said Parties exonerated from their respective Obligations under the same: Provided always, that no Wages or any Portion thereof which may be accruing due to the Employed under any Contract of Service, after the Date of such Order shall be assessed to the amount of Compensation or Damages and Costs directed to be paid by him under any such Order or Warrant of Distress or Pounding, or be payable or arrestable under the same.

Application of Fines and Money recovered. 13. Where Justices, or a Magistrate or Sheriff, under this Act, they or he may, if they or he think fit, direct that a Part, not exceeding one-half, of such Fine or Sum, when recovered, be applied to compensate an Employer or Employed for any Wrong or Damage sustained by him by reason of the Act or Thing in respect of which the Fine was imposed, or by reason of the Non-fulfillment of the Contract of Service.

Punishment for aggravated Misconduct, &c. 14. Where on the Hearing of an Information or Complaint under this Act it appears to the Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff that any Injury inflicted on the Person or Property of the Party complaining, or the Misconduct, Misdemeanor, or Ill-treatment complained of, has been of an aggravated Character, and that such Injury, Misconduct, Misdemeanor, or Ill-treatment has not arisen or been committed in the bona fide Exercise of a legal Right existing, or bona fide and reasonably supposed to exist, and further, that any pecuniary Compensation or other Remedy by this Act provided will not meet the Circumstances of the Case, then the Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff may, by Warrant, commit the Party complained against to the Common Gaol or House of Correction within their or his Jurisdiction, there to be (in the discretion of the Justices, Magistrate, or Sheriff) imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any Term not exceeding three months.

Party convicted may appeal to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace. 15. Any Party convicted by two Justices or the Magistrate under the Provisions of the last preceding Section may appeal against the conviction upon finding good and sufficient security, by Recognizance or Bond, with or without Sureties, to the Satisfaction of a Justice or Magistrate, to prosecute the said Appeal at the next General Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the County or Place wherein such conviction shall have been made, and to abide the result of the said appeal according to the usual Procedure of such Court, and to pay such costs as that Court may direct, which costs that Court is hereby empowered to award.

Parties to the Contract of Service to be competent Witnesses. 16. Upon the hearing and determining of any Information or Complaint between Employer and Employed, and on any Appeal, under the Provisions of this Act, the respective Parties to the Contract of Service, their Husbands or Wives, shall be deemed and considered as competent Witnesses for all the purposes of this Act.

Master and Servant.

17. No wages shall become payable to or recoverable by any party for or during the term of his Imprisonment under any Warrant of committal under this Act. Wages not to be payable during Imprisonment.

18. Nothing in this Act shall prevent employer or employed from enforcing their respective Civil Rights and Remedies for any breach or Non-performance of the Contract of Service by any action or suit in the ordinary Courts of Law or Equity in any case where Proceedings are not instituted under this Act; nor shall anything in this Act affect the Provisions of the Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth relating to the Arbitration of Disputes between Masters and Workmen, or of any Act extending or amending the same.

19. Nothing in this Act shall interfere with the usual and accustomed Mode of Procedure in any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction for the Trial of indictable Offences relating to wilful and malicious Injuries to persons or property committed by Masters, Workmen, Servants, or others, either at Common Law or under the several Statutes made and now in force for the Punishment of such Offences, but so that no Person be twice prosecuted for the same Offence.

20. The several forms in the third Schedule to this Act contained, or forms to the like Effect, shall be deemed valid and sufficient in Law, and no Objection shall be taken or allowed for any alleged Defect therein, either in substance or in form, and in Scotland any Complaint under the Provisions of this Act, if brought before the Sheriff, may be in the Form of a summary Petition, and followed by the usual Forms of Procedure applicable to summary Petitions in the Sheriff Court; and the Forms set forth in the third Schedule (Part 2.—Scotland) to this Act annexed, or Forms to the like Effect, may be used, and shall be sufficient for the purposes thereof.

21. The Enactments described in the Second Schedule to this Act, and all Enactments extending or amending the same, shall apply to the Trial of indictable Offences relating to wilful and malicious Injuries to persons or property committed by Masters, Workmen, Servants, or others, either at Common Law or under the several Statutes made and now in force for the Punishment of such Offences, but so that no Person be twice prosecuted for the same Offence.

22. Except as in this Act expressly otherwise provided, every Order under this Act shall be final and conclusive, notwithstanding anything in any of the Enactments described in the First Schedule to this Act.

23. No Writ of Certiorari or other Process shall issue to remove any Proceedings under this Act into any Superior Court.

24. Nothing in this Act shall take away or abridge any local or special Jurisdiction touching Apprentices.

25. Nothing in this Act shall extend or make applicable to or in Ireland, or to or in any Part of Great Britain, any of the Enactments described in the First Schedule to this Act not in force there independently of this Act.

26. This Act shall continue in force until the Expiration of one Session of Parliament, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.
