No. 621.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM.

In reply to the inquiry made in the Public Works Department, No. 159E of the 31st ultimo, regarding the retention of Lieutenant Westmoreland, R. E., in his appointment of Controller of Public Works Accounts, Oude, while attached to the Royal Engineer Depot in England, the undersigned is directed to point out that no Officer, who is absent from his appointment for more than twenty months in England, or two years in India, on medical certificate, is entitled to retain his appointment, unless under some very special order issued applicable to his case.

No such order seems to have been issued in the present instance.
