Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 25th March 1868.

No. 255. Read the following letter from J. D. MAYNE, Esq., Clerk of the Crown, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 20th March 1868.

With reference to Act XIII. of 1865, Section 28, I am directed by the High Court to state that the depositions in the case of John Handford, European British subject, charged with culpable homicide amounting to murder, have been received from the ~~Justice of the Peace~~ Wellington and Coonoor.

2. I am further directed to inquire whether it is the intention of his Lordship the Governor in Council to issue, under the provisions of the above Act, a Commission authorizing a Judge of the High Court to hold sittings at any place other than the Court's usual place of sittings.

3. The Register of preliminary inquiry sent by the Justice of the Peace, Wellington and Coonoor, is herewith forwarded, from which may be gathered the nature of the charge.

No. 256. To the Honorable the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 25th March 1868, No. 514.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Mayne's letter of the 20th instant, I am directed to inform you that it is not the intention of the Governor in Council to issue a Commission under the provisions of Act XIII. of 1865 for the trial of the case therein referred to.

2. The enclosure received with Mr. Mayne's letter is returned.
