Chief Office of Inspector General of MADRAS,

28th March

My dear Ellis.

The Comformal huts are of course for privacy.
I think they are very necessary - indeed they form part of our Sanitary plan - I believe the only reason why the Temples huts were built without these is.

dispendable adjunct was that the District Building Fund was started in 1866/67. - & consequently the completion of the walls was deferred. - They are in fact the usual backyard walls. The term
"Compound" walls may perhaps have misled.

As to the Pandals I conclude that they are to protect the front of the Lines. Possibly the houses are unusually exposed - perhaps the walls did not come sufficiently low. I did not refer the matter back as both Compound walls & Pandals had been directed to be built by Mr. Robinson on personal inspection of these tents in Tanjore so he must have seen

The receipt for these There are 36 built in all - Plans for 28 are sanctioned in G.O. 1468 of 3rd Decr. 1867 - & we can now provide for the remainder from funds expended in other districts -

Yours faithfully

Hastings and Building.
