Office of the Collector and Magistrate,

Salem,

4th October, 1882.

My dear Master,

The telegrams for the last half of September have not been read, & Mr. Iyer is too much occupied with his cases to go to Madras. If you think fit to give me a semi-official note which can be shown to the Agent of the Madras Railway, saying that my name can be substituted for Mr. Iyer's on passport occasion, I will go to Madras myself for the purpose. The G.O. is dated 7th Sept. 1882. no. 1335. Judicial. I think that he will might very likely show me the telegrams without special authority, but it would be better to be regular.
