the prison where, being met with a sharp volley of musketry, they fled, crying out. To arms! The moollahs one of whom was wounded, returned to the square where they had set up a pole and a Koran on the top of it. The crowd took an oath on this venerated symbol, neither to eat, drink nor bathe until they had cut Ferrier into pieces and his body thrown away to the dogs of the Bazaars. This demonstration took place about 11 in the fore-noon and at 5 p. m., a sharp file firing was opened on the house from the ramparts on which the insurgents had placed themselves. "I had" says Ferrier, "a few moments of anxiety lest the soldiers intended for my guard should join the rioters, but it was soon dispelled and those who had the most ill-used me fought as zealously as the men who reinforced them. They were all men devoted to Kohendil Khan who had followed him into exile in Persia from 1839 to 1841, and their hatred of me vanished before their devotion to a positive order."

Mr. H. J. Tarrant the Government Prosecutor in the Commissariat bribery cases applied by petition to the Recorder of Rangoon sitting as a High Court for leave to institute certain cases which would otherwise have to be brought in Thayetmyo and Tounghoo in the Assistant Magistrate's Court, Rangoon. Mr. Tarrant observed that it would be greatly to the public convenience, the convenience of witnesses and accused in order allowing the suits to be tried in Rangoon was passed. One of the cases had already had a preliminary enquiry in the Assistant Magistrates' Court at Rangoon and would shortly be committed to the Recorder's Court for trial. In several other cases of a similar nature the alleged offences were committed at Tounghoo and Thayetmyo but the witnesses were in Rangoon, the records of the Commissariat office and the books of the recent firm of Cohen Brothers of the Registrar in his capacity.

A Burmese Mahomedan, been sentenced by the Extra Commissioner of Syriam to rigorous imprisonment and 200, for theft of two bamboo baskets, appealed to the Deputy Commissioner of Hanthawaddy Moungh Htoon Oung, advocate of the conviction. Mr. Buckle the Commissioner yesterday on the coming on for hearing directed release of the appellant, stating that there were discrepancies in the statement of the two women supposed to have identified them, and that any evidence as to possession of such common articles of bamboo baskets would have to be taken with great caution. They are to be some bad feeling among the villagers in the case and they were entitled to the benefit of doubt and would accordingly be acquitted.

Judicial.
No. 6.

MY LORD DUKE,—I have considered in Council the Proceedings of your Government on Mr. Sullivan's Report as to the causes of the recent outbreak in Rampa, and your orders thereon forwarded with the Despatch No. 5, dated the 16th of January 1880.

2. The discontent which resulted in the outbreak is attributed by Mr. Sullivan to the oppressive and aggressive acts of the Mansubdar, the grievance arising from the imposition of the Abkari tax, and the absence of proper supervision and control on the part of the European Officers.

3. The Mansubdari tenure of Rampa and the Mukhasa tenure of the villages in the plains have been abolished, and the direct administration of the country resumed by Government. The ex-Mansubdar will be retained at Berhampore under Government surveillance and receive a stipend of Rs. 200 per mensem derivable from the income of the lapsed Mukhasa villages. I approve of your Proceedings in these matters, and of the settlement of the muttas which has been made by Mr. Sullivan.

4. The burden of the Abkari tax has been very properly mitigated by your orders, making it a small additional per-centage on the mutta demand instead of leaving it to be assessed by the contractor on an undefined basis.

5. Referring to the third cause mentioned by Mr. Sullivan, the papers now before me amply prove that this unfortunate outbreak, with its attendant loss of life and property, interruption to industry and expense to the Public Revenues, would never have occurred had the local authorities adequately performed their duties. For years the people had been smarting under the oppression of the Mansubdar, and had been suffering very real grievances from other causes, while all along the remedy lay with the officers of the district if they had only taken the trouble to make themselves familiar with its history and condition. With regard to one of those officers, a member of your Council has observed that "his ignorance is as astounding as the results have been disastrous." This aspect of the case I consider to be one of very grave moment, and it should be carefully borne in mind in your further orders as to the administration of the District.

6. I willingly give my sanction to the concessions made to those individuals who have shown loyalty to the Government during the disturbances, especially in the case of Linga Reddi, whose conduct throughout has been most praiseworthy.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT, 17TH JUNE 1880, No. 1441.

7. Finally, I concur with your Excellency in Council in your approval of the highly satisfactory manner in which Mr. Sullivan has discharged the difficult and important duty assigned to him.

To His Excellency the Most Noble
The Governor in Council, Fort St. George.
