from Lt. Col. Weldon,
on special duty, dated Rangoon 20 Decr. 1879.

Order thereon of 3 Jan^y 1880 h 515/10

Colonel Weldon puts for the consideration of Govt. whether in the case of the native
subordinates implicated in the Commissariat frauds, it
will be worth the expense of prosecuting
them in a Civil Court
if it be found that a Military Court

174 8/1

cannot deal with them,
or whether their case
can be disposed of
by Departmental orders.

2. Unless there is something special
in any particular case or cases, the Govt. consider that native subordinates
should be dealt with departmentally
as a general rule.
Where breach of trust
is proved summary
dismissal should follow.

3. Offenders of high position should
alone

alone be brought to trial.
