GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

13th January 1880, No. 83.

Mr. T. J. Maltby.

Read the following papers :—

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., Acting District Magistrate of Vizagapatam, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 3rd January 1880, No. 2.

I have the honor to forward a letter from the Civil Surgeon, in which he reports upon the insanity of Mr. T. J. Maltby, and submits the requisite forms justifying his treatment as a criminal lunatic.

2. Dr. Smith in his letter urges the necessity for Mr. Maltby's immediate removal from Vizagapatam to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras, and in this opinion I entirely concur.

3. The Government, acting on a telegram from me, have authorized Mr. Maltby's confinement in a private house; but I have been unable to meet with a house suitable for him, and the Civil Surgeon is now of opinion that while in Vizagapatam Mr. Maltby could not with advantage be moved to any other place. He will therefore remain at the Asylum until orders from Government upon this letter are received.

4. Mr. Maltby is now in a bungalow on the Asylum premises, with a couple of Drummers from the Native Regiment in attendance upon him, and a guard of Police round the house.

5. The accommodation, however, is very confined, and quite unfit for a patient of his standing and position, and on this account and also with respect to his particular delusions, it would seem desirable to remove him from the Vizagapatam District altogether.

6. Dr. Smith expresses a confident opinion that his insanity, if cured at all will be of long duration; and he expresses grave doubts whether Mr. Maltby will ever again be mentally fit to be set at liberty.

7. I venture to suggest, therefore, that he should be immediately transferred to the Asylum at Madras, where proper accommodation and attendance can be afforded.

4. As regards Mr. Maltby's property, Mr. Irvine was right in disposing of the horses and dogs by auction, but any other articles of an easily moveable description which can be readily transferred to Madras and sent home if desired by Mr. Maltby's family should be retained, and all papers carefully preserved.

5. The facts of the case will be reported to the Secretary of State for communication to the family in England or elsewhere.

(True Extract.)

C. G. MASTER,
Acting Chief Secretary.

To the District Magistrate, Vizagapatam.
„ Superintendent Lunatic Asylum, Madras.
