Commissioner
Report of the Superintendent of Police, Madras City District

DATED 1st June 1888.

DESPATCHED 7 - 1888.

1. Foreign emissaries, real or suspected.

2. Political intrigues.

3. Political or social excitements or movements.

3.4. We have had the so-called Christian College disturbances. Commenced 29. April and continued till May. Petitionable cause being the intended conversion to Christianity of a Brahmin student. To which as an after thought was added alleged remarks by some of the Professors disparaging to the Hindu religion. The real motive is supposed to be a desire on the part of certain interested persons to give up a religious demonstration against the Christian College with a view to exciting local Hindu feeling to come forward with funds to raise Patcheapada School to the status of a College managed on purely Hindu principles. The prime mover is one Swasankara Pandian Esq., one of the masters of Patcheapada, and a member of the Theosophical Society.

4. Religious excitements, or new, or special organizations.

5. Criminal classes, any unusual gathering or movement.

In the beginning of May the citizens, and our neighbours of the Chingleput District, were visited by house breakers who did not scruple to resort to violence. From the descriptions given it is suspected they were travelling criminals from the Bombay, Ceded Districts, and Bellary. During the latter part of May crime has been normal.
