Ajmere, 28 Jan 88.

My dear Mr Stothel,

When discussing the question of the cost of the new "Special Branch" in Madras I explained that in the Punjab a portion of the cost was borne by Imperial revenues and that, according to the instructions then given me, the same proportion would be contributed from that source in the case of the other Local Governments.

By a telegram received from the Home Secretary I am directed to inform you that this statement was premature and that it is before to ask Local Government to bear the whole expenditure.
