by ~~representing~~ ^{Pro} lists.
I got a letter of Mrs. & sent in the ~~labor~~ after the receipt who with some hesitation produced the Pro list & a letter Both are written by a Clerk in the Sub. Ct. office who is married to the Sub judge's niece

& now lives in the Sub judge's house. Mr. D. over the papers. I see no rise but a case arising from with his draft ~~fact~~ leaves no doubt about the matter.
I can proceed first with the case & report it if you wish for evidence strong enough to justify suspension.
Yours truly
A. H. Fox

Mr Cox acts in this matter not as a Judge or much as a Prelim.

Comm. for Port.

Of course the Vakil
was not to sit with him but to hunt
up & put before him any case that is available. When this is complete Mr Cox may leave his station,

but the Vakil, who may be Mr Richmond

(perhaps only advised saying the Port. Master) will probably have to help in the final Enquiry before a regular Comm.

Mr Cox may be used to this effect. I am quite willing to respect the J. now & the matter may be brought up in Council tomorrow
19th

For orders: —

It is presumed that this intention was, not that the Vakil should be associated with Mr. Cox in the Enquiry, but that Mr. C. should employ him in any way connected with it that he might choose, and also that Govt. would pay him any fee which Mr. C. might recommend.

Also that Mr. C. may be told that as soon as even his facts before Govt. evidence sufficiently tangible to be the basis of a charge, the Jury could be called on to answer, they will suspend him.

I propose to explain to Mr.
C. the report of Port. that they have to ask him to forego his fees other than of the Government he is rendering. V. H. H. 19th

Your letter 17th. You are acting us as District Judge so much as preliminary commission for Port. Vakil is not associated with you but is to help in procuring and putting available evidence before you. Govt. will of course pay him what you recommend. Choose Richmond
if you like.
