NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

The amount mentioned is a huge one -
 (1) After this man this reached any other licenses but caps. if so few have many. He apparently asked the Resident for permission for a still larger quantity.
 (2) What the quantity is for.

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

On looking at the paper again I see that the applicant is himself the Consignee.
 I am then that the license may be granted but that the Rest be told to do his best to find out what finally becomes of the caps.

The C.S. has been asking for information on this point, but the office was unable to furnish it.

The pet^r prays that, in pursuance of the enclosed Memo of the Resident in Travancore No 1084 of 1893, a license may be granted to him for importing 8 lakhs of percussion caps from Madras by land.

I think that if any one is to be called on for an explanation on this point it should be the Resident. The applicant will probably simply reply that he wants them for purposes of trade.
