(Police)

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter N^o 80 Judicial, dated the 14th January 1893, on the subject of the modifications in the rules relating to the constitution of the Special Branch of the Police Department in the Madras Presidency.

2. I am to say, with reference to paragraph 3 of your letter, that the intention of the Government of India is that the Special Branch should have charge of, or at any rate be cognizant of, all such confidential or demi-official work in the local Secretariat as relates to the subjects with which the Central Special Branch deals. These subjects, I am to add, are as in the memorandum which accompanied

Circular No 341, dated the 1st October 1887, issued from this Department

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
