I think in old telegraph from that we selected an English gentleman to fill the vacancy known of the impossibility of finding a Native of India qualified to discharge the duties efficiently and to whom the Govt. confined as a permanent appointment

District Jail show that the duties of the Superintendent are not so onerous and responsible as those of the Superintendents of several of the other jails, and it ought not to be difficult to select a competent Native of India (as defined in the circular of the Government of India, dated 18th April 1879, No. 746-53) to fill this Office.

3. On the understanding therefore that the appointment is temporary only and subject to further report, I confirm your proceedings in this matter.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
Your Lordship's most obedient humble servant.

Yours.

Mr W. C. Holmes

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

It is suggested that this order might with advantage be comm^d to
