C. No. 3277.

Note connected with

G.O. No 1609 dated 21.8.95

C.S.

FOR ORDERS.

Petitioner having in G.O. No. 15.6.95 been furnished with a duplicate copy of G.O. No. 90 ^{23.1.90} containing the order now applies for copies of the papers read therein. It is invited to the notes for Rs. 100 with that G.O. containing a full account of Lakshmana Mudali's case. The facts, very shortly stated, are:- Lakshmana Mudali was dismissed from the Police, in which he held the rank of 6th grade Inspector, in 1884, for forwarding a currency note for Rs. 100 bank as a bribe to his Super, Mr. E. D. Stevenson. After the lapse of 4 years Petitioner appealed to for producing new evidence, including certain post cards, purporting to show that the Rs. 100 note was above mentioned and from the enclosed Subordinate sent into the envelope by enemy, Charmant Earl. The perintendent's circuit letter, with object of getting Pat into trouble. this new evidence, first consulted the Inspector Genl., Postmaster Genl. & Advocate Genl., and after receiving their reports, arrived at the conclusion that the post cards, constituting the principal evidence adduced, were in all probability forgeries and declined to interfere on Pat's behalf. It is for copies of these reports* that the Pat now applies. Submitted that they are confidential and should be refused. one of them, besides, are taken separately Pat's favour. It would appear to be a mistake to furnish Pat with copies of them and thus help him to launch ^{against Govt} the very vexatious suits ^{being a suit presumably against Govt} that he contemplates.

The report to GO. 90 23.1.90, showing as it does what an extremely ingenious and unscrupulous individual Pat is, affords an additional reason if any were required, why the above course should be adopted.
Pat stated that he had not received the four post cards which were returned to him along with other enclosures to that order - The weight of the enclosures minus the post cards were found to tally with what was marked in the Post Office as the weight of the Encls. including the post cards.

Inquiries were instituted in office but no clue could be found to this mystery - Until, on the matter being referred to the Commr of Police for inquiry, it appeared that Pat had pasted pieces of paper to the enclosures to bring them up to the proper weight! The ^{missing} post cards had meanwhile turned up in the Inspector General's office, having been forwarded there with an anonymous letter stating that the post cards had been received
