3. So far as I know he did the Treasury work properly; & judging from the <sup>bills</sup> ~~files~~ he sent up to me for orders he carefully scrutinized all bills he received.

4. He sent me a very carefully considered report about Namanthirathi Island.

5. In his magisterial work he shewed a decided improvement. He was more careful over original and appellate cases and his remarks on the Calendars of Sub-Magistrates shewed that he had recognized the necessity of examining Calendars at once, and that he really was exercising supervision.

6. During the 12 days he was in Revenue Charge of Calicut Taluk under my orders he did his work to my satisfaction.

7. With his work as Escheat Deputy Collector I have had no cause for complaint. Several letters he wrote to me about escheat work shewed that he was taking an intelligent interest in the work.

8. In these circumstances I beg to state that, in my opinion M. R. R. D. Ramachandra Rao may be entrusted with the Charge of a Division, for I am sure that the lesson he has had will have a lasting effect.

I have the honour to be Sir

Your most obedt servant

D. R. Rao

For Orders

25-5-95

This is a good thing to come from him
Indubly. & Mr R. Ramachandra Rao is to be considered no longer in disfavor the question of the selling the 1st Div. ships which will fall to the Govt service will arise as he brings an "excellent" has the preferred claim both

26/9/95

I think Mr. McOverly's opinion that he is now fit for a Divisional charge may be accepted.

28/9

Anyway, he may be tried but I should say he should be placed under a smart
C.M. & begin with 11/10/95

He must now be put forward.
The C.S. will send up suggestions for his employment as a divisional officer. I suppose as Head Asst.
