Order: 15 Feb. 1895, No. 339.

The perusal of the judgments of the High Court in criminal appeals 289 and 295 of 1894 raises grave doubts as to the expediency of allowing Mr. H.R. Farmer to continue in the exercise of the powers of a Sessions Judge. The Honble the Judges of the High Court will accordingly be requested to state their opinion as to whether he is fit to occupy his present office.

Perhaps it would be better to write D.O. as in Mr. Holmes' case.

With Sir

I am directed to request that the Honble the Judges of the High Court will favour Govt. with their opinion as to Mr. H.R. Farmer's fitness to continue in the exercise of the powers of a Sessions Judge.
I am to say that this reference arises from the perusal of the judgments of the High Court in Criminal appeals nos. 289 & 293 of 1894 the perusal of which show that Mr. ²Forster mismanaged conducted the enquiry into the important murder cases in such a manner as to give rise to grave doubts as to the expediency of allowing him to remain in his present appointment.
