GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G. O., dated 17th July 1894, No. 1748, Judicial.

ABSTRACT.—Recording letter from the District Magistrate of North Arcot, replying to G. O., dated 20th March 1894, in regard to the extension of the rules framed under the Explosives Act to that district.

ORDER—dated th May 1895, No. , Judicial.

The Government understands that there is now a Gold Mining Company working in the North Arcot District, and that a quantity of high explosives is probably used there; the District Magistrate should therefore again consider whether, in the interests of the public safety, it is not now time to extend the rules under the Explosives Act to his district.

2. Copy to all District Magistrates except those of Coimbatore, Malabar and Nilgiris with the request that they will report at a very early date whether the use of dynamite and other high explosives is becoming common, and if so, whether it is not necessary to bring their possession and sale under regulations by extending the application of the rules under the Explosives Act, which are now in force only in Coimbatore, Malabar and the Nilgiris.

(True Extract.)

J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.
