* No 696 J. dated the 23rd February 1895 }

I have the honour to reply to your letter No 4207 J. dated the 15th December 1894, and subsequent reminder*, regarding a life-convict named Roomie, whose release has been recommended to the Government of India by the Superintendent of Port Blair on Medical grounds.

2. The convict in question, according to the report just received, appears neither to have belonged to a professional gang, nor to have been a hereditary dacoit. His brother and three uncles are respectable cultivators in a village called Dommarepattee in the Magadi taluk of the Bangalore District, and the former is able and willing to support Roomie, if released.

3. In these circumstances, there would appear to be no objection to the convict being set free in the Bangalore District and delivered over to his brother through the District Magistrate of that District.

4. The roll received with your first letter cited above, is herewith returned.

I have &c.,
