The peti. states as follows:-
During the years 94 & 95, the peti. presented petitions to the Sub.
Registrar of Godavari and the Inspector General of Registration complaining against the Sub. Registrar of Bhimavaram.
But these officers without making full enquiries of the matter disposed of the petitions (vide enclosures). The following are the complaints against the Sub-Registrar above referred to.
1. It is a custom with him to attend office at 2 or 3 P.M.
2. He has appointed four of his relatives as his clerks. These look after his private affairs also & are free private tutors to his sons. The Sub. Registrar may also obtain for them some addition additional gain in the office.

3. Whenever his presence for registration purposes is required in any village he pays too many unnecessary visits to the parties.

2. No night watcher has been as yet appointed in the office.

5. He is a native of the Amala -pura M. in the same district & the brother of Mr G. Ramayya Pantulu the Dy. Coll. who has much influence. (?)

6. He believes in the evidence of those who are his friends & disbelieves in that of his enemies.

7. His office hours are devoted to the enquiry of those cases which he takes up as special magis-trate & the papers that come for Registration have to suffer.

Under the circumstances, the petitioner prays that his petition to the ~~Sub~~ Registrar of Godwari the Registrar-General may be sent for perusal & that orders may issue for the enquiry into the above Com-plaints by the Registrar of any other than Godavari.
