The humble petition of Cornish

the Penitentiary Madras that your Petitioner was convicted by the High Court in C.C no 14 of 12-2-95 under Sec 457 & 3802P and sentenced to 18 months rigorous imprisonment.

2- That your Petitioner did not commit the offence.
The fact is that the Petitioner went with Seshachalam to Thiruvattar and returned Thiruvattar the same night. The Petitioner had been a tenant of Seshachalam one of the Co-accused in the case. As the Petitioner and the said Seshachalam came late from Thiruvattar they slept on the porch in front of the house. At about 3 P.M. some Police Constables awoke the Petitioner and Seshachalam and enquired if any one ran that street. The Petitioner said he did not notice anyone running. Then the Police took the Petitioner and Seshachalam to the Police Station and were asked to say that the 1st accused gave a parcel to them, but the Petitioner fearing that his elders would punish him if he complied with the request of the Police refused to say what the Police induced the Petitioner to say. Then the Petitioner was locked up in the Station and was placed for trial before the High Court and was granted 18 months sentence unjustly.

The Petitioner therefore prays that His Excellency may be pleased to take pity on the petitioner for his innocence and order the discharge of the Petitioner from custody.
