To The Collector and Dist Magistrate of Salem, Salem
No. 142. Remount Depot, Hosur
Dated 19/4/1895

Sir I have the honor to bring to your notice that I have been now two years at the Hosur Remount Depot and after a careful consideration have now come to the conclusion that it is not in the interest of Government, advisable to leave the Superintendent Remount Depot without Magisterial powers.

I do not consider it necessary to enter deeply into the explanation of the nec-essity which is fully set forth in Col.
Ewing's letter to you No 999 of 15th November 1890. The reasons which neces-sitated the invest of magisterial powers on Col. Ewing exist more now than in 1891.

Before addressing you on this subject I consulted Mr Campbell the sub-collector and joint magistrate of Hosur and he quite sees the necessity for the Superintendent Remount Depot to be invested with the magisterial powers.

I would therefore propose for your consideration that I should be made a First class magistrate so as to have summary powers of trial in the Depot and the few villages within 2 or 3 miles where people employed at the Depot chiefly live as any other powers less than the above will entail a lot of visiting for which I have neither the establishment nor the time.

I send this communication through the sub collector of Hosur who will have an opportunity of expressing his views on the subject for your consideration.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant
(Signed) E. Chalmers

Superintendent Remount
Depot
Hosur

Endorsement No 506 of 22-4-95 of the
H. Joint Magistrate

Forwarded to the District Magistrate. Government in giving Col. Ewing 1st class summary powers has recognised the necessity for investing the Superintendent of the Remount Depot with magisterial powers. Col. Ewing's successor Capt. Leade was for the same reasons as Col. Ewing, given 3rd class powers on succeeding Col.
Ewing as Superintendent. I do not under the circumstances think it necessary to discuss the question whether or not the Superitendent should be a magistrate as that question has twice been decided in the affirmative.
2. The only question left for decision is what powers should be given to Col. Chalmers. Col. Chalmers wishes to be made a 1st class

Class Magistrate and given summary powers under section 26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure on the ground that anything short of these powers would necessitate his recording evidence & writing long judgments. For this, he says he has no time and no establishment. He would certainly require a special Magistrate Clerk if he were given 2nd or 3rd class powers. There is another reason for giving Col. Chalmers 1st class powers which I submit for consideration and that is that Col. Chalmers is a senior officer far superior in rank to the local Sub Collector and Joint Magistrate who is, as a rule, like myself an officer of only 8 or 9 years service. It would, I submit, be undesirable to place an officer of Col. Chalmers' rank in a subordinate position to the Joint Magistrate. Col. Chalmers tells me that he is not new to Magistrate work, having once acted acted for 3 months as Cantonment Magistrate at Allahabad. I believe that Col. Ewing was given 1st class powers in consideration of his seniority in rank and that the same powers were denied to Capt. Good on the ground of his junior rank and experience. If the above surmises be correct I submit that Col. Chalmers should be placed in the same position as Col. Ewing and given the following powers.

1. 1st class powers and powers of summary trial in respect of offences described in section 260 clauses (C), (D), (E), (F) & (G) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and offences falling under sections 160, 352 & 354 of the Indian Penal Code
2. Special powers under section 14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the trial of offences falling under sections 357 of act IV of 1889.

His jurisdiction may extend like Col. Ewing's to the villages of Matgiri, Edellar, Chikkar, Belagondapalli, Jiguri & Karamun. Col. Ewing's powers were notified in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 3rd February 1891 (p. 67) and June 16th 1891 p. 551

Submitted to Government

The reasons which induced me to recommend the grant of magisterial powers of the 1st Class to Col. Ewing apply with as much reason to the grant to Lieutenant Colonel Chalmers. I consider that summary powers bearing a close resemblance to military discipline, the best and most suitable powers when an officer of experience and discretion like Col. Chalmers is available.
The matter stands on quite a different footing ^{where} a junior officer of known indiscretion like Captain Lord is concerned. I think too there is much force in the sub-view view that a senior military officer should not be placed under a junior civilian as would be the case if any but 1st class powers be given. Col. Chalmers has, he states, exercised magisterial powers as a Cantonment Magistrate.

I would strongly recommend therefore, that Col. Chalmers's application be complied with in this special case and I submit herewith a draft notification defining his powers and the local limits of the jurisdiction within which they should be exercised which is in all respects the same as that issued in Col. Ewing's Case.

Note. Col. Ewing was invested with these powers in 1877 37 Aug. 91 R. No 125, Judl. Perhaps for the same reasons the D. M. recommendation may be accepted? Col. Chalmer states that he has exercised magt. powers as a court magistrate.
