GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

SIR,

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 3176 (Judicial), dated 22nd December 1894, forwarding a return showing the strength and armament of the Police in the Madras Presidency, I am directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the Government of India may be furnished with a similar return in future, in the form enclosed in the Home Department Circular* marginally noted, showing the strength and armament of the Police on the 1st January of each year.

* No. 1-Police 252-61, dated 31st May 1894.

2. I am to take this opportunity of observing that, in the opinion of the Government of India, the Police force should not be trained and drilled up to the full extent required by military education. The Police reserves must, of course, be taught to use their fire-arms and to act together, but the Governor General in Council considers that there need not be any attempt to train the Policemen to a very high standard of military efficiency.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. Hewett.

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
