Order: 13th December 1894, No. 3079.

The Government consider that further enquiries should be made by the Police with a view to trace the missing Constable. It is not improbable that more might be learnt if the wherabouts of the yogi who convicted the Constable was instrumental in procuring the ^{assisted} sanctioned enquiries should be made with this object in view, effort being simultaneously made to discover the yogi to send a

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement N^o 552 dated the 13th of March 1895 requesting me to state whether the Government can grant a pension of Rs 4 a month to Thoyarammall, the wife or widow of Constable Varadarajulu Naider, N^o 540 of the Chingleput District Police, I have the honour to report as follows:-

It appears from the file of papers received with your endorsement that Varada rajulu began service as a B Class Constable in the Chingleput Police Force on the 1st March 1894 and served for a period of nearly 20 years.
A case of theft having occurred within the limits of the Police Station at Pennagar in the Uttaramallur Division, the constable was on the 14th February 1893 deputed to serve a summons on a Jogi named Bodigan, whose evidence was considered necessary in connection with the case. As the constable did not return, all possible efforts were made to find him, but no information could be obtained, and he was eventually struck off as a deserter.

Under Article 782 of the Civil Service Regulations, a wound or an extraordinary pension can be granted only when injury or death is met in the performance of a duty which is attended with extraordinary bodily risk while no claim can be recognised on account of loss of life or injury resulting from an ordinary accident. From the facts stated above it is not clear whether the constable is alive or dead, and if he died, whether he met his death in the performance of his duty as a Police officer. The rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations do not provide for the grant of a pension in a case of

of this kind.

The papers received with your endorsement under reply are herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Maurice

TO

31 MAY 95

SIR, IN M.S.

I am directed to submit the following case for the favourable consideration of the Govt. of India.

One Varadarajulu Nayudu, whose service as a 3rd class constable in the Chingleput Police Force on the 1st March 1878, and served in it for a period of nearly twenty years, on the 4th February 1893, entrusted with a sum to be served on one of a band of

ap. / 1011

(A wandering and very frequently armed tribes) Jogies in the Velupre Division, North Arcot District, in connection with a case of theft committed within the limits of the Police station to which he was attached, viz. ^{(damaged in the Chingleput} ^{Dist. 1}
 As the ^{man} did not return within a reasonable time, ^{his inquiries} were ^{set on foot in view} to discover his whereabouts; but ^{no} intelligence regarding him being obtained eventually struck off as a deserter.
 Notwithstanding this having been done, the circumstances of the disappearance of ^{Paradrapath} ^{negate} ^{there were such as to induce further} ^{search but} every endeavour in spite of the ^{every endeavour} did the offer of a reward, Col. Porteous, the late Inspector General, came to the conclusion that "the man was dead, and probably murdered by the jogies to find whom he had been sent out. That he should receive ill-treatment at their hands was not unlikely as a few months previously he had been awarded a good conduct stripe for arresting some members of the ^{gang} who were ^{ultimately} sentenced to terms of imprisonment.
 In October last the Govt. received a petition from the constable's wife Thyarammal praying for a subsistence allowance in consideration of her husband's 20 years good service in the Police

of the disappearance of ^{Paradrapath} ^{negate} ^{there were such as to induce further} ^{search but}
 He was last seen at the village of ^{Sathupuram} in the village of ^{Sathupuram} which he left in search of the jogi on whom he had to serve the summons.

Police department and of his unaccountable disappearance while on duty. This was referred to the Inspector General of Police and on receipt of his report, the substance of which has been given above, the Govt. directed on the 18th December that a further ^{search} should be made by the police with a view to trace the missing ^{man}, the ^{stipend} on which the ^{stipend} should be paid. A report as to the circumstances of the petitioner was at the same time called for, on the receipt of which, as it was evident that she was in real and pressing need of pecuniary assistance, the Government as an act of charity authorized the disbursement — to her of a sum of Rs. 35.
 4. The further enquiries conducted by the police have ^{been without} ^{the slightest} without result and the Govt. concurs with the Inspector General in considering that the constable is dead, and that he ^{was} murdered in all probability ^{of a} by the band of jogies ^{in search} member of which he was sent to serve ^{More than two years have elapsed since he} ^{disappeared without a trace of} ^{either the jogies for the constable} (beyond Sathupuram) has been found. There appears to be not the slightest chance of any further information on the subject being forthcoming.

in ~~any~~ ^{these} circumstances proof that the constable met his death while in the performance of his duty will in all probability never be available. ^{and without} ~~such proof~~ ^{no pension is} under the rules admissible to his widow.

5. In view however of the facts that the record of her husband's service is particularly good, not a single entry having been recorded in his default sheet during the last 16 years of his service, that it is highly probable that he met his death in the performance of his duty, and that ^{Mayarammal} ~~the widow~~ is without any means of subsistence, H.E. the Governor in Council considers that the case is one which justifies the grant of an extraordinary pension to her, and strongly recommends that under Art. 1004(a) of the C.S.R. the Govt. of India may be pleased to sanction the payment to her of a monthly allowance of Rs. 4. ~~per mensem~~ ^{thru}
