As to whether the G. is confirmed tion may now be obtained? Rule X(3) then needs amendment.
This point does not seem to have been noted before either by the P. of Police or by the Judicial or Financial Dept.
The definition of "local allowance" cannot include these good conduct allowances; &
the sanction of the Govt of India under S.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No 228 Judicial Department dated 2^d Feby '95 recorded in Government Order No 143 dated the 16th idem sanctioning the grant of a good conduct allowance of Rupees 1 per mensem to Police Constables earning three good conduct stripes, with an additional allowance of Rupees 1 per mensem when six stripes have been secured, and ruling that the allowances should be treated as local allowances, I have the honour to point out that good conduct allowances do not fall under the definition of local allowance as given in Article 38 of

of the Civil Service Regulations and respectfully to request that as the grant of such an addition to the salary of Police Constables has not been provided for in any existing special orders, the confirmation of the Government of India may be obtained under Article 91 of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. W. Rawlinson
Accountant General.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

SIR,

In reply to your memorandum No 698 dated the 29th March 1895, I have the honour to state that under article 93(i) of the Civil Service Regulations - Government can make an addition to the pay and allowances of an officer so long as it does not - raise them above Rs 250 a month. There appears no objection, therefore, to the grant of good conduct allowances to Police Constables as personal allowances as in the Central Provinces.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,
M. W. Rawlinson
Accountant General.
