His Excellency the Right Honorable the Viceroy and the Governor General of India in Council

The humble memorial of Voonu Pandappa pri soner No 5692 of the Beechamphore District Jail most humbly and respectfully sheweth :-

1. That your petitioner is only a young man lately married and has a boy child born to him very recently.
2. That your petitioner has committed the offence in his young age being incapable of knowing what the nature of the offence he committed was and what will be the consequence of it.
3. That your petitioner's wife and children have no one else to support them.
4. That if your petitioner be hanged now, he is to be considered as not to have felt the consequence of the offence he committed as the punishment will last only for a few minutes.
5. That your petitioner, most humbly and respectfully begs that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to commute the sentence of death to life so that your petitioner may undergo the punishment for the prescribed period and live a virtuous life afterwards and die a natural death.

For this act of mercy on the part of your Excellency, your petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.

it will be necessary to telegraph the result of this pet. to Barrampore.

The pet. has now changed his story & admits that he committed the murder but pleads that he is a young man. I cannot imagine that the personal of this confession of a brutal & foul murder will induce the J. of I. to take a different view from that already taken by this Govt. - The petition shd. be dealt with in the usual way.
