 General of India in Council

The humble petition of Court No 8496 Anapally
 Humbly sheweth:-

Enclosure No 2 to Letter No 289 dated 25 May 1895

1. That your petitioner was sentenced to death by the Session's Judge, Cuddalore in case No 11 of 1895 and on appealing to the High Court of Judicature at Madras and to the Madras Government the sentence was confirmed.
2. Your petitioner had married the deceased some 10 years ago and since she was leading an adulterous life, her mother was underhand in the affair, the deceased had 4 paramours between whom there existed enmity, your petitioner a year ago had arranged before the village Munsiff and his cashier not to have any dealings with his wife, they then separated, this the villagers were aware of, since there were no communications between your petitioner and the deceased.
3. Your petitioner left his village Chintharazupalli one month previous to the occurrence of the murder, and went away to Paleonda, Gadecottai &c places for grazing cattle for coaly, the police 3 months after the occurrence of the crime had apprehended your petitioner at Caluway while he was grazing cattle.
4. Your petitioner is not aware which of her paramours had murdered her through some misunderstandings, your petitioner who was an innocent ^{man} was brought into this miserable state by the deceased's paramours by breeding his mother-in-law Naji who was naturally ill disposed towards your petitioners

5. The High Court Judges and the Madras Government confirmed the sentence of death without fully enquiring into the real facts of the case. It is said in the copy of judgment that only Naji the mother of the deceased witnessed the crime and no body else, when the crime had been committed on the dawn of day it is strange that no body else of the village passing by the way had heard the cry and seen the crime but her mother.

6. Your petitioners mother-in-law and her people through Judge that he quitted the deceased have trumped up this case against your petitioners.

7. Trusting that your Excellency in Council will take the trouble to enquire with the aid of copies of judgment and render justice by sparing the life of your petitioners who was unjustly sentenced to death.
