No. 52.

To,

His Excellency, The Right Honorable,
The Governor of Madras.

The humble petition of Mari Convict No. 8256 in the Central Jail at Salem.

I was sentenced to Rigorous Imprisonment for 7 years by the Sessions Judge of Salem and on my appeal to the High Court of Judicature at Madras I received an order dismissing my appeal.

I was working with my uncle for about three years. Owing to some ill-feeling I went to my house with my share of paddy. Then my uncle's wife threw dust on me and abused me. I gave her a blow. My uncle came and gave me two blows with his stick. I pushed him and he fell to the ground. I went away. A false case has been brought against me and I have been convicted.

I therefore humbly beg that His Excellency will be pleased to send for the records in my case and render justice to me.
