From,

District and Sessions Judge,

To,

D. W. G. Conic Esquire
As. Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that with reference to G. O. dated 21st March 1894
Nos. 727, 727A judicial, I appointed one
A. V. Paminadaiyer, 6th clerk and short hand writer of the District and Sessions Court of Chingleput, as 4th clerk and short hand writer of this Court on a Salary of Rs. 25 with an allowance of Rs. 30 and reported the appointment to the High Court in my letter of the 13th

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 289, Public.)

13th October last No. 631. He was drawing a salary of Rs. 20 and an allowance of Rs. 30 in the Chingleput Court. He was relieved in the said Court on the afternoon of the 25th October last and joined his duty in this Court on the forenoon of the 1st November last, having availed himself of 6 days for joining time.

2. A Bill for his joining time allowance from 26th to 31st October last at the rate of Rs. 50 per Mensem, viz his pay Rs. 20 and allowance Rs. 30 which he was drawing in the Chingleput Court, was sent to the Treasury Office of this place but was returned on on the ground that the local allowance should not be claimed during transit. Thereupon a bill for his joining time allowance at Rs. 20 per Mensem being his pay as 6th clerk of the Chingleput District Court was sent and cashed.

3. The Treasury Office's objection seems to have been based on Rule 205 of the Civil Service Regulations whereby an officer is only allowed during joining time the pay or salary which he drew in his old appointment or that which he will draw on joining his new appointment, whichever may be less and on Rule 47(C) 3 which lays down that salary does not include local allowance.

4. The allowance granted to Shosh hand writers was originally termed personal allowance by G. O. dated 21st March 1894, No. 727, 727 A Judicial alone referred to but subsequently named local allowance by G. O. dated 12th May 1894 No. 1145 Judicial and it seems the Government did not think it fit to give to the allowance granted to Shosh hand writers the same privileges as are attached to what is called personal allowance, which is treated as part of an officer's substantive pay for the purposes of

personal allowances

of calculating leave allowances and pension under Rule 47 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations.

5. The provisions of the Civil Service Regulations relating to local allowance taken together do not seem to me to favor the present case. However, Rule 38 (b), authorizes the payment of local allowance in full to the officer actually present on duty while Rule 193 provides that an officer is held to be on duty during joining time and Rule 78 lays down that so much of local allowance as is not paid to a substitute may be drawn by an officer absent

absent from his office through deputation on special duty for a period not exceeding one month.

6. The provisions of the Regulations referred to in the preceding paragraph have no direct application to the present case. But a consideration of the facts that the appointment of short hand writer of this court was made solely in the interests of the public service and that the absence of the clerk concerned from duty in the Chingleput court was only one of a few days, leads me to think that I am justified in recommending this case to be treated

treated as a special one so that the clerk concerned maybe given a con-cession to draw the local allowance also during his joining time of 6 days.

7. I therefore request you will be good enough to obtain the necessary orders for allowing the clerk above named to draw his local allowance during joining time, i.e., from 26th to 31st October last at Rs. 30 per mensem over and above the pay of his old appointment, viz., Rs. 20, already drawn by him.

SUBJECT.

Stating that local allowance is inadmissible to the short hand writer of the District Court of Madras for the period occupied by him for joining the app't from Chingleput

(London)

FOR ORDERS.

In the first paper read above the Ref. of the High Court forwards a letter from the as a special Secy. Judge of Madras recommending the payment of a local allowance to the short hand writer of his court during his joining time [from Chingleput] from the 26th to 31 Oct. 94 at Rs 30 per m. in addition to the pay of his former app't. of Rs 20.

The A.G. to whom it was referred for remarks states in the second current that under articles 205 + 47(c) 3 of the C. S. R. the allowance is inadmissible. - He is certainly right & the matter is not of sufficient importance to warrant our addressing the Govt. of India to alter the rules.

27-5-95

The A.G. is clearly right & no one but his Dunsmuir would have troubled Govt. with a reference on this very petty matter. There is no ground whatever for hearing
