The humble Petition of Court No. 6526 Thosaputi Venkatakrishnamah Confined in the Prison Penitentiary, Madras.

Sheweth

That your Petitioner was tried in Sessions Case No 1507 1894 by the Session Judge Krishna on a charge of murder under Sec 302 I.P.C and Sentenced to suffer death. The High Court reduced the Sentence to Transportation for life.

2. The Petitioner did not Commit the offence; the deceased Nagamma is ^{Petitioner's} my caste girl and was frequenting the Petitioner's house; but the Petitioner does not know who murdered that poor girl.

The Petitioner was living by means of a small hotel and the Petitioner's husband was earning something by means of small bazaar; while the Petitioner was thus leading a peaceful life. She was harassed by bringing false charges on her. The 15 witnesses for the Prosecution were induced by the Police to give false evidence against the Petitioner. The Police hearing that a murder was committed but not knowing who its perpetrators were charged this innocent hotel keeper, your petitioner, with this offence, prepared evidence sufficient to convict the Petitioner and got her convicted. The evidence was made to show at a Court of justice could not infer the truth of the case from the evidence produced. This is very unjust.

The Petitioner therefore prays the Hon. Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to make the necessary enquiries into the case and order the discharge of the ^{innocent} Petitioner from custody.
