His Excellency the Right

The humble petition of Ramasawmy convict No 6347
Confined in Her Majesty's Penitentiary Madras.

Sheweth.

That your humble petitioner was tried by the Chief Presidency Magistrate Eymore, under sections 379 & 75 I.P.C and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment, and on the petitioner appealing to the High Court, His sentence was confirmed.

That one witness of the prosecution is dumb and a vagabond and the other is a habitual in receiving stolen property. Both the witnesses gave evidence against the petitioner at the instigation of the Police and the Magistrate convicting the petitioner, relying on the evidence

vidence of there is against Justice

The petitioner was convicted only for reasons that he is an old offender.

It is alleged in the prosecution that the petitioner was arrested at the spot of the offence. If this were true the petitioner should have been arrested with the property. The petitioner was only arrested when he was walking up in a street.

The Police threatened the petitioner that if he should produce any defence witnesses, he would be dealt with more severely by the Magistrate, and therefore he did not produce any defence witnesses, although he had many witnesses at the time to prove his innocence.

The petitioner therefore prays that all the records so many people.

After the petitioner was arrested and locked up by the Police, they sent for the Complainant and other witnesses and made them to say that petitioner also was one of the accused.

The magistrate recording that the petitioner was convicted in four previous offences, is quite unjust as much as the petitioner is not an old offender at all.

It is also certified by the Jail authorities of the Penitentiary that the petitioner is not old offender when he was brought there by the Police for identification.

While the petitioner's identification and the particulars of his previous convictions, do not agree with one another, it is quite unjust, for the magistrate to convict the petitioner.

The petitioner therefore prays prays that all the records connected with his case may be sent for and carefully examined and that he be set at liberty.

Sheweth

That your humble petitioner was tried by the Chief Presidency Magistrate Egmore under sections 379 & 75 I.P.C. and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment in Calcutta Case no 17472 of 94 and another his sentence was confirmed.

his sentence was only The petitioner was waiting at a shop to ~~be~~ change one Rupee and to pay the Tutka-hire to a Tutka-Driver from Washermanpete to Triplicane, when the prosecution witnesses handed over ~~me~~ ^{the Petitioner} to the Police stating that he (petitioner) has robbed of them. The Police, then taking away the one Rupee, and a muslim turban, that were only left with him, and turned out the Tutka-Drives

The Police then locked up the petitioners and included him as one in a theft case, that took place some two days previous to his arrest, and gathered false evidence in support of his conviction.

The magistrate convicting the petitioners relying on the evidence of a dumb man and a vagabond is against justice, and these latter witnesses were only obtained some 35 days after the arrest of the petitioners.

The petitioners told the magistrate that he would produce defence witnesses to prove his innocence but the magistrate did not care for it. The dumb man, who is a witness in this case in the prosecution side, was some time after, concerned in a theft case and was convicted, and his evidence therefore, would not be

be admissible.

The petitioners therefore pray that all the records connected with his case may be sent for and carefully examined, and that the petitioners be set at liberty.
