At Jammalamadugu, Proddutur, Kadiri, Pulivendla, Sirkont & Basud there seem to be sub-treasuries, as being the stations of Tahsildars. A telephone to the B. of Rev. is submitted calling for exact information. MR 9/2/95

2. The Dist. Magte being asked if it was not possible to secure the property in a room of the local sub-magistrate's office - reports that at Basool & Sirkont where there is no stationary District Magte property is kept in the Taluk Treasury. This is probably objectionable though section 2 (2) of Vol. I of the Civil Act Code permits the receipt into a treasury of "bullion, jewellery & other valuable articles &c." at the discretion of the District "officer". At Chitaval & Pileru the property is secured in the same room with money, stamps &c in charge of the D. Tah. In the remaining 6 stations ^{available} no room is available as the Submarine is located in the Sikhs' Office.

~~There is no need for separate~~ ~~chests~~

It has been ascertained that there are Subtreasuries at all these stations except Chitrol & Ramalapuram.

but even supposing that it is un--fictionable to secure case property in a subtreasury, it would be desirable to provide a proper chest in which to keep it. - The total sum required being only Rs. 1200, it is submitted that the ~~Government~~ High Court request should be accorded to. It is only two or three years since some case property in the care of the Head Const. Singh of Cuddapah was stolen; & it is ~~not~~ ^{not} unlikely that similar attempts may be made upon property in the custody of Submarine.

12-2-95

The work of it is that of the H.S.

It is successful in this case & will come up in others. It is however not just to hold Officers responsible for not doing in their case if they have not provided for them proper places in which to secure it. I cannot at this moment recall the circumstances of the loss of the property in the custody of the 14th Det. Cuddapah (Hem N. in Raja Khair), but my recollection of the matter is that it was the result of great carelessness.

should rule is that cash chests may is that the Stationary Submarine is that the Tab. cannot spare him one.

There is not anything in taluk catchment
