To,

His Excellency, The Right Honorable,
The Governor of Madras.

The humble petition of Convicts Nos 8304
Pennimalu, 8305 Raman, 8306 Mottagau, 8307 Go--vindan, 8308 Dombhan and 8309 Kutti in the Central Jail at Salem.

1. We were sentenced by the Sessions Judge of Salem and on our appeal to the High Court of Judicature at Madras we received an order rejecting our appeal.
2. We, Convicts Nos 8304 Pennimalu and 8305 Raman are not in good terms with Manickam, a Police Head Constable, for the last three years. I, Convict No. 8304, had never been to the scene of offence.
I was at Salem. I do not know anything. A case of house-breaking and theft was brought against me, Convict No. 8305 Raman, by Manickam about two years ago and it was dismissed.
3. We, Convicts Nos 8306 Mottagau, 8307 Govindan, and 8308 Dombhan, do not know anything. We own gardens adjacent to that taken on lease by the Complainant. She, accusing us of theft of goods had been abusing us. She has brought a false case against us owing to enmity.
4. I, Convict No. 8309 Kutti, had a concubine of Andy caste in the village of Mannampolam.

has been living with me for the last four years. Since then enmity exists between myself and the villagers. The Police has brought a false case against me at the instigation of the villagers and Munsif Morigas.

We therefore humbly beg that His Excellency will be pleased to send for the records in our case and render us justice.
