I am afraid nothing can be done for I see that it has been ruled in Calcutta that S. 418 governs
 S. 417 C.P.C. — at least that is the effect of the ruling — so there is no appeal.

CHIEF OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE,
Coltiamand
Madras, 27th May 1895.

FROM

M. Hammick Esq. I.C.S.,
INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE,

TO

THE Chief Secretary
to Government, Coltiamand.

SIR,

Enclosure.
one.

I have the honor to submit for the perusal of Government, the judgment in Calendar Case No 18 on file of the Session Court of Cuddapah. I ask Government to read the judgment in this case as I think it will show Government under what difficulties the Police work in that District. The case was a perfectly plain one in which the Police and village Taluaries placed on a dangerous road in Cuddapah District actually arrested a dacoit, one of a band of ten or twelve, in the act of committing a night dacoity. The Sessions Judge summed up to the jury in favor of conviction and was clearly himself of opinion that the case was a true one. The accused was acquitted.

acquitted and no reference made to the High Court. I am afraid nothing can now be done in the case, but it is not encouraging to the local Police in a district where violent crime is rife to find an accused caught flagrante delicto acquitted by the local jury in the face of an address which was dead against the prisoner.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir,
 Your most obedt. Servant,

Mammek;
 Inspector General of Police.
