NO.

Malabar District Magistrate's Office.
Calicut 9th February 1885

From,

H. Moberly Esquire
As District Magistrate of Malabar.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Judicial Department
Madras.

Sir,

IX

In its order dated 23rd November 1884
No. 2839, Government, acting upon the recom-mendation of the District Magistrate of Trichin-opoly, raised the allowance of Paratodiyil Pa-from Rs 9 to Rs 12 per mensem.

2. During my recent tour through Emad and Walluvanad Talukhs, I made enquiries regarding P. Paradi and found that his in-come ^{in this district} never exceeded Rs 6 a month. Soon after he reached Trichinopoly he sent for his wife and family, saying that he was better off there than here, as he got Rs 9 a month, and living was cheaper there. He has now got his wife and family with him. Seeing that he gets more income in Trichinopoly than he got or ever would get here, his deportation is no punishment. I venture therefore to suggest that his allowances be reduced to Rs 6, the figure I first recommended.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

For orders

The Edin supt. & the D.M. of Trichinopoly do not ~~at all~~ consider the present allowance of 12 Rupees too much, having regard to the cost of living for Malayali in Trichinopoly. In these circumstances perhaps the allowance may be told that Govt.
has no reason to reconsider par 6 of 90. 2839

24/4/95

Ask if he is doing any work or simply living idle; and if he is doing no work whether there is anything to prevent his doing so - I don't see that Govt.
is bound to give them department men more than a bare subsistence - If they want comfort or work, they should work for comfort.

Refce order No 943 of 95
The Dist. Secy is requested to state if Paratodiyil Paradi is doing any work, or simply leading an idle life; in the latter case it should be stated whether there is anything to prevent his working.

J. Andrew Esquire,

ag. DISTRICT MAGISTRATE OF Trichinopoly,

Judicial DEPARTMENT,

MADRAS.

SIR,

With reference to endorsement No. 342 dated the 20th February referring to me for remarks the suggestion of the District Magistrate of Malabar, that the allowance granted to Paratodiyil Paradi be reduced to Rs. 6 per mensem I have the honor to state that I consulted the Superintendent of Police, and concur with his opinion that the allowance should not be reduced. He writes as follows:— "I think the allowance of Rs. 12 per mensem is by no means too much. A Malabari can live on very much less in his own Country than he can elsewhere as he has his relatives to help him, besides having his own house and garden where he can grow his own vegetable whereas in Trichinopoly he has to pay house rent and has none of his own people round him. May I say, I know from experience (having served some years in Malabar) require more nourishing food than the East Coast people are used to. Six rupees per mensem as suggested by the District Magistrate of Malabar

I consider, quite insufficient for the support of four persons of the Moplah Caste in Trichinopoly, and they will suffer in health if the sum of Rs. 12 now allowed, is reduced.
