OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,
Dated 29 May 1895.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS, Prisons

To

THE Honble Mr. T. F. Price, C. S. I.

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

SIR,

No Enclosure.

I have the honour to request that the Government may be pleased to authorize the Public Works Department to prepare an estimate of the approximate amount of Rs 800 for certain improvements in the Press buildings at Her Majesty's Penitentiary, Madras.

2. These improvements have been asked for by the Superintendent of the Government Press in consequence of the increase in the number of presses due to the transfer of printing work from the District Presses to Madras. Mr. Hill states that certain additional presses are expected from the Salem District, and that, in order to make room for them, it is necessary to remove the damping work from the present damping room, to a fresh place at the end of the Machine room, where a new damping room will be formed by erecting a railing. The roof of the present damping room will then be made water-tight, which it is not at present, and a door will be opened so as to allow papers to be counted and stored there. In the space thus set free the new presses will be placed. I examined these proposals at my last visit to the Penitentiary in March 1895, and agreed with Mr. Hill that they were necessary.

3. The Public Works Department requires the sanction of Government before estimating for this work, but it has examined the proposals and the Consulting Architect places the cost at about Rs. 800.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

R. G. Cardew
Inspector General of Prisons.
