Dated Simla, the 1st June 1895.

Foreign Deptt.

Sir,

It has come to the notice of the Government of India that in December last the Commissioner of Police in Bombay granted a license in favour of a "Captain Goodwin, Dâk bungalow, Jaipur", to export a rifle and ammunition from Bombay to Jaipur; but that no such person as Captain Goodwin could be found at the address given and the consignment was consequently recalled.

2. Captain Goodwin's name was apparently accepted by the Commissioner of Police as establishing the fact that he was an European subject of Her Majesty, but it is understood that the Commissioner had no information regarding 'Captain Goodwin' beyond the bare name; and, if this is correct, a reference should under paragraph 4 clause (c) of the letter* marked in the margin, have been made to the Resident at Jaipur.

From the Government of India in the ^{Foreign} Deptt., No 2945-J., dated the 3rd October, 1883.

Printed in 1883
4 Dec 1883 No 3189-91
M J. 12.

3. On previous occasions attempts to evade the rules have been made by natives of India applying under English names for licenses to export arms and ammunition into Native States. It is extremely desirable to guard against such illicit traffic, and

I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, the Commissioner of Police in Bombay may be instructed that, in all future cases of this kind, if the applicant is not known or has not produced satisfactory evidence of his position, reference should be invariably made to the political authority concerned before any license is issued.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

H. Daly,

Offg. Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
