Sanction of government the following recommendations for the payment of fee to the Public Prosecutor for his services in Calcutta Cases nos 11 & 15 of 1895 on the file of the Sessions Court,

2. Calcutta Case no. 11. In this case, the Public Prosecutor conducted the prosecution both in the Preliminary Enquiry before the Stationary Sub Magistrate at Sivewaller

Before the Sub Magistrate the Public Prosecutor attended the inquiry for 5 days as shown in the margin, but though on two of the days he was not engaged in the Court the whole day, he could not possibly have attended to any other work during those days, as he had to travel from Chingaput to Simvallee and back. Before the sessions Court, the trial of the case lasted for 6 full days, the Public Prosecutor attending the whole time, so that he is entitled to full fees for 11 days. I therefore recommend that a sum of Rs. 275 for his services in this case.
